

~~BOUNDARIES~~

Rise Collaborative is releasing the fourth edition of its print publication, No Boundaries, in September 2018. We are excited to announce that Issue 4 will be a magazine.

To date, nearly 30,000 copies of our free publication have been delivered to every neighborhood in Buffalo, first and second ring suburbs, and limited editions to Jamestown and Niagara Falls.

Rise Collaborative and No Boundaries tell stories of Buffalo's underreported people, neighborhoods, challenges and successes by bringing in a seasoned team of writers, illustrators and photographers, and by partnering with organizations like Open Buffalo, Matt Urban Hope Center, Jericho Road, Partnership for the Public Good, Healthy Community Alliance and more.

Advertising in print ensures you reach your target audience when they're paying the most attention to your message. Join us in our effort to expand Buffalo's renaissance to all of its citizens.
